

Phase – Green (RVU Community Access)

Required Conditions:

- Approval of CRT
- State government approval of required group sizes and other requirements
- Guidance from infectious disease specialists and CRT Medical Officers pointing to key criteria: i.e., spread of disease, availability to larger scale testing, progress on therapeutics
- Appropriate health screening available upon building entrance
- Facilities are ready w/ engineered controls in place to account for sanitizing schedules and adequate supplies
- Pre-notification communication sent out by CRT

Administrative / Organizational Controls in Place – The Workforce/Students

- Building changes to RVU Community Access
- Staggered or remote working schedules/shifts implemented as approved by managers
- All organizational controls implemented in Phase ORANGE with respect to clinical students may be maintained in Phase GREEN.
- All lab-based courses and hands on training events permitted on campus
- Tracks, Electives and meetings are permitted in conference rooms and other indoor/outdoor spaces
- Student clubs / interest groups are permitted in conference rooms, indoor and outdoor spaces, with prior approval using the Event / Activity Approval form
- Large-group events permitted with prior approval using the Event / Activity Approval form
- Prepackaged/individually wrapped, or plated food and drinks permitted at events. Self-serve buffets are not permitted.
- Shared spaces opened (library, student lounge, classrooms, conference rooms, study rooms, print room, etc.)
- Study/Break Out rooms opened – Reservations required
- Locker rooms and gyms opened
- Outside visitors permitted for curricular experiences, tours or other administrative tasks approved by managers and academic leadership with attestation, masks and social distancing when possible
- Onsite written exams, subject exams, lab assessments, post exam reviews and remediation exams permitted
- RVU sponsored travel may resume but travelers should follow CDC guidelines and follow all state and local recommendations.

Engineered / Physical Controls in Place – The Facility

- Building hours expanded
- Engineered controls implemented in Phase YELLOW may be maintained in Phase GREEN

PPE and Safety Measures

- All employees and students are required to adhere to current RVU health and safety guidelines
- All guests and contractors are required to complete attestation and follow current RVU health and safety guidelines

RVU Community Access

RVU Community Access permits the following access:

1. Building is open to all RVU students and employees during normal building hours
  - a. Building hours will open 24/7 - Monday – Sunday
  - b. Doors will be locked but remain accessible by RVU ID badge
2. Additional doors will be open for access
  - a. CO: North and South doors for ingress / East doors for egress
  - b. UT: North and South doors for ingress / East and West door for egress
3. Guests and contractors will be permitted with prior approval from managers and/or academic leadership and attestation. 24-hour notice of approval desired
4. The buildings are not open to the general public. Open tours and other access without attestation and/or prior approval will not be permitted. Signage will be placed outside to inform the public.