

Rocky Vista University Professional Licensure Disclosure Statement

Doctor of Osteopathy (DO)

The American Osteopathic Association (AOA) is the accrediting agency for the Montana College of Osteopathic Medicine (MCOM). Graduation from an AOA Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA) accredited college of osteopathic medicine is required in order to begin training in an AOA or ACGME (Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education) residency program to which he or she has been accepted, and to take the COMLEX-USA Level 3 examination. The MCOM program meets the educational degree completion requirements for applying for licensure in all 50 states and the U.S. Territories.

RVU strongly encourages students to determine any additional requirements for licensure in the state in which they seek to practice osteopathic medicine. Students should refer to the individual state licensing bodies, as well as the Federation of State Medical Boards or the Physician Licensing Service for requirements for licensure. For licensing board contact information, please go to: <https://www.fsmb.org/fcvs/participating-boards-for-physicians/> or <https://osteopathic.org/life-career/licensure/state-licensure/> program that fails to comply with accreditation requirements in a timely manner, as specified by the ARC-PA, may be scheduled for a focused site visit and is subject to having its accreditation withdrawn.

Specific questions regarding the Program and its plans should be directed to the Program Director and/or the appropriate institutional official(s).

The program's accreditation history can be viewed on the ARC-PA website at: <http://www.arc-pa.org/accreditation-history-rocky-vista-university/>
