

Constitution Day and Citizenship Day

Designation - September 17 is designated as Constitution Day and Citizenship Day.

Purpose - Constitution Day and Citizenship Day commemorate the formation and signing on September 17, 1787, of the Constitution and recognize all who, by coming of age or by naturalization, have become citizens.

Events – Rocky Vista University’s Library Services put on an event each year that includes a celebratory cake and the handing out of free Constitution booklets.