Date Approved: 05/18/21

Date Revised:

Category/Policy #:

Responsible Office: Research and Scholarly Activity

Policy Categories: 1.0 – Academic Programs; 2.0 – Operations; 3.0 – Administration and Governance; 4.0 Students and Student Affairs; 5.0 – Utah Campus Specific; 6.0 – Committees and Councils; 7.0 – Archived Policies; 8.0 – Forms

I. Purpose and Scope: This policy is intended to: (1) Assist investigators in the publication of their research and scholarly work; (2) Maximize the benefits and impact of investigators' research and scholarly works; and (3) Improve tracking of research and scholarly activity at RVU.

II. Policy Statement: RVU faculty, staff, and students shall notify the Director of Research of any and all publications or presentations (upon acceptance) for required institutional tracking.

III. Procedures: In order to (1) Assist investigators in the publication of their research and scholarly work; (2) Maximize the benefits and impact of investigators' research and scholarly works; and (3) Safeguard RVU's interests, relationships, and reputation while preserving academic freedom, investigators agree to notify the Office of Research and Scholarly Activity via email (director.research@rvu.edu) prior to publication or presentation, specifically at the time of acceptance, or in the case of collaborations, the time of notification.

In performing research and scholarly activity, investigators also agree to acquire all regulatory and RVU process approvals, including:

- a request for "Research Authorization" form on file in the Office of Research (students only)
- a Conflict of Interest Declaration on file in the Office of Compliance
- documentation of all necessary human subjects, HIPAA, and pertinent research training
- an approved and active IRB protocol, IRB exemption, or reliance agreement for any study

producing or using any data from human subjects, regardless of the institution/clinic where the data was obtained, or where the research or scholarly activity (including case studies) occurred

- authorization/permission from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness granted to a faculty mentor/principal investigator to use any institutional data (i.e., any non-public data about Rocky Vista University curriculum, students or faculty, test scores, admissions, or other outcomes) for research or scholarly activity.

Rocky Vista University has funding to support the publication of research and scholarly works. Please contact the Director of Research if you are interested in requesting financial support for your publication. Note that if requesting funding, RVU reserves the right to verify that all of the above documents are on file and to vet the authors' selected journal to protect the author and ensure that we are not supporting predatory publication practices.

IV. Additional Information:

DEFINITIONS: For the purposes of this policy, a publication will include the general dissemination of data to the public, including but not limited to, journal articles and presentations. It does not include calls for clinical research volunteers, brochures, or press releases that do not include scientifically or clinically acquired data. Research is defined as a systematic investigation into a topic or material in order to establish facts and reach a conclusion. Scholarly activity is defined as creative works that are peer-reviewed and publically disseminated.

Related Policies: Intellectual Property and Institutional Data

*Nothing in this Policy limits the authority of the university to issue, amend, or withdraw a policy.
