

International Student-Financial Commitment Form

To receive an I-20 form, prospective F-1 visa students must submit documentation proving they have sufficient financial resources to cover both educational and living expenses for at least one academic year. By entering the U.S. or applying for a change of status to an F-1 visa, you agree to maintain these funds for the entire duration of your studies.

Please complete the form below and submit required documentation.

Section I (Student Information):

Full Name of Student: _____

Section II (Financial Information):

Check all that apply:

- Personal funds:* Provide an official dated U.S. bank statement or bank letter on original bank letterhead, which is no more than six months old and which includes account number(s), account type(s), and the current balance.
