

International Student-Financial Sponsor Form

In order to receive a Form I-20, prospective F-1 Visa students must provide documents that demonstrate adequate finances to fund educational and living expenses for at least one academic year. Having obtained an I-20, signing it, and either entering the U.S. or filing a change of status to F-1 Visa status, you agree to have funds available for the duration of your studies.

If financial documentation will come from an individual and not a government, organization, or your own personal finances, please have the individual complete the form below. Each individual contributing to your education must complete this form and submit an official dated bank statement or bank letter on original bank letterhead, which is no more than six months old and which includes account number(s), account type(s), the current balance with a clear indication of the currency, in English language or accompanied by an English translation, which is signed and dated by an appropriate official of the bank or other financial institution.
