I. Purpose and Scope:

This policy regulates the transfer of credits to Rocky Vista University. It ensures consistency in practice and conformity with established best practice for graduate medical education programs.

II. Policy Statement:

In alignment with established practice in graduate medical education, Rocky Vista University does not recruit transfer students or accept transfer credit from other institutions except as specifically outlined in individual program transfer credit policies.

III. Procedures: Student applicants seeking an exception to this policy must arrange to have their academic history and credentials from previous institutions reviewed and approved by the program leadership and/or committee(s) identified in the individual program transfer credit policy.

*Nothing in this Policy limits the authority of the university to issue, amend, or withdraw a policy.
